

Time for Letting Go and Forgiveness by Consuelo Cassotti

2021 (2+0+2+1=5) = 5

A Year of Freedom & Change Leads to an EPIC TRANSFORMATION!

These numbers carry a powerful vibration and reveal a long-overdue gift from the Universe. Something you've been waiting for years.

After years of tough soul-searching, demanding change, and the dismantling of the status quo, this is the year you can level-up in all areas of your life. It is going to take some work for clearing and focus on what you really want.

Now is the time for letting go of what doesn't best serve us and a time to use our hearts to recognize what we need to do next. We can now make space for new aspects of ourselves that are ready to be part of us.

Time is the vehicle of consciousness of Humanity. Everybody who experiences the space of anger or frustration finds it impossible to forgive. Still, with time the mind is awakened and Forgiveness is possible. As an example: maybe a person apologizes, perhaps we recognize the truth, the shift of space-time occurs, and new energy penetrates us. Those who are not able to forgive themselves or others in a space and time related to the event in their mind; they have lost the ability to move in space with this new shift in a new energy.

Working on releasing trauma from this or other lifetimes and being open to forgiving ourselves and anybody else will help us move forward to this transformation.

Forgiveness helps us to cut our cords and free ourselves from situations or people from the past that no longer serves us, or our Greatest good. Because of this, Forgiveness can be seen as an act of self-love. A great occasion to move on and take our power within back.

For this purpose, I created a session that would help you succeed in releasing traumas and emotions related to them. An online version for yourself or your family that you can re-play for only a $30 purchase. You can find more information at my website BalanceEvolution.com

During this session, you will not need to share what you are revisiting; you can invite others to join this session as well. This is a gift for yourself and a stepping stone to realize and transform anything you want in this year of Epic Transformation!

As an intuitive and empathic, I can work multi-dimensionally to see and clear blockages from this lifetime and other lives with my Karmic Release. My Hypnosis (QHHT and RTT) sessions, help to transform old unhealthy habits or better reconnect a person to their Higher Self.

My sessions can be done by distance or in person, the result is the same.

"My call" to move here from Italy was because of what I can do for searching soul and healers.
